

I moved to satellite Radio about six months ago when I just about got feed up with all the commercials I have no choice but to listen too. I need to hear traffic report once I hit the road unlike local radio stations that report traffic and weather every twenty minutes and even then its not as complete as XM TRAFFIC REPORT